

AVNI SHAH

Textile Designer

surface design, weave concepts, print development

Hyderabad, India | avni.shah@example.com | ROLE 34-02

FICTIONAL SAMPLE - all employers, qualifications and outcomes are illustrative and unverified.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Textile Designer with an illustrative 12-year career in apparel design, styling, beauty services and merchandising. Combines surface design, weave concepts, print development with disciplined documentation, practical coordination and clear communication. The sample career progresses from focused execution to independent workstream ownership, with responsibilities and boundaries described for each appointment.

Selected work includes home textile collection, print production refinement and textile sample library. These examples explain the original problem, individual contribution, deliverables, review approach and remaining limitations rather than relying on unsupported headline claims.

Prepared for experienced textile designer opportunities requiring dependable delivery, thoughtful professional judgement and collaboration. The qualification narrative includes Master's in Textile Innovation. Every named organisation and outcome in this record is fictional; professional eligibility is not independently established.

Career family: Fashion, Textile & Beauty | Snapshot: 2026-09-22

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE / RECENT

Textile Designer

Meridian Fashion and Beauty (fictional)

Jul 2023 - Present | Hyderabad, India

Independent ownership of scoped textile designer work, coordinating contributors and making review requirements explicit. Includes the first two selected work examples.

- Developed repeats and reviewed sample applications.
- Adjusted separations and documented material responses.
- Led brief clarification and prioritised work using surface design, weave concepts and print development. Raised unresolved constraints before committing to the next stage.
- Coordinated peer reviews and handover preparation; used a collection or service brief to distinguish completed work, assumptions and follow-up needs.
- Supported colleagues with practical examples of colour research and maintained a concise learning record after important assignments.

Illustrative career responsibilities. Employer confirmation and underlying work records are not supplied.

Senior Textile Designer

Northline Fashion and Beauty (fictional)

Jul 2019 - Jun 2023 | Hyderabad, India

Owned defined assignments and supported cross-functional coordination. Developed deeper practice in print development and colour research.

- Organised swatches and technical notes.
- Translated incoming requirements into a sequenced plan and aligned responsibilities with the project or service owner.
- Applied repeat design and materials to resolve delivery questions while maintaining source and decision notes.
- Introduced reusable working documents and reviewed exceptions with the responsible specialist rather than silently changing scope.
- Prepared a approved handover or presentation so the next team could understand the work and remaining questions.

Illustrative career responsibilities. Employer confirmation and underlying work records are not supplied.

PROFESSIONAL WORKING PRINCIPLES

- Clarify the client or collection brief, practical constraints and review criteria.
- Document trials, material choices and personal responsibility in collaborative work.
- Use appropriate client consent, hygiene awareness and controlled production records.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE / EARLIER

Textile Designer

Cedarbridge Fashion and Beauty (fictional)

Jul 2016 - Jun 2019 | Hyderabad, India

Progressed from supported tasks to independently managed assignments, with review available for unfamiliar or higher-risk decisions.

- Handled recurring work involving surface design and weave concepts using a documented preparation and review process.
- Supported print production refinement by organising inputs, maintaining issue notes and incorporating reviewer feedback.
- Coordinated colleagues and internal stakeholders using concise status updates, clear questions and agreed next steps.
- Improved record consistency through sampling and documented handover expectations.

Illustrative career responsibilities. Employer confirmation and underlying work records are not supplied.

Assistant Textile Designer

Cedarbridge Fashion and Beauty (fictional)

Jul 2014 - Jun 2016 | Hyderabad, India

Built practical foundations through supervised assignments, routine documentation and feedback from experienced colleagues.

- Assisted with surface design and print development within an agreed scope and escalated unfamiliar work.
- Prepared inputs and checked completeness before passing work to the responsible reviewer.
- Maintained task records and learned to communicate assumptions, constraints and observed problems clearly.
- Applied review feedback to subsequent assignments and developed a dependable working routine.

Illustrative career responsibilities. Employer confirmation and underlying work records are not supplied.

SELECTED CONTRIBUTIONS

Textile sample library. Organised swatches and technical notes. The achievement is the described workstream contribution; independent outcome evidence is not supplied.

SELECTED WORK / 01

Home textile collection

P1 | Jan 2024 - Jun 2024 | FICTIONAL WORK EXAMPLE

Context. Fictional internal work programme in apparel design, styling, beauty services and merchandising; not a real client case study.

Problem. Patterns lacked a coordinated scale and colour story.

Objective. Create a workable response to this issue through surface design, explicit review criteria and practical documentation. Agree the boundaries before execution and retain unresolved points for follow-up.

Contribution and ownership. Textile Designer; owned the stated workstream, not the full organisation or every collaborator contribution.

- Developed repeats and reviewed sample applications.
- Prepared the scope with the commissioning team, identified unresolved inputs and used surface design to turn the brief into a sequenced work package.
- Applied weave concepts and print development while coordinating reviews with the designated owner. Kept decision notes so collaborators could separate facts, assumptions and changes.
- Assembled the handover material, explained open limitations and agreed which items needed further review rather than presenting them as completed.

Methods. surface design / weave concepts / print development / colour research

Deliverables. Home textile collection - scoped brief; Home textile collection - reviewed working package; Home textile collection - handover and learning summary

Review. Reviewed the scoped output against the agreed brief, recorded exceptions and checked that key conclusions could be traced to observations. The review package calls for a collection or service brief and a named human reviewer.

Illustrative outcome: the team adopted a repeatable approach for home textile collection, with clearer ownership and reviewable records. This is a fictional qualitative result; no real performance measurement or external acceptance evidence is supplied.

Suggested evidence (not supplied): collection or service brief; annotated trial and sample records; approved handover or presentation.

SPECIALIST PRACTICE

Creative and service boundaries

The sample focuses on surface design, weave concepts, print development. Approvals, supervision and specialist input are identified in each work package; work outside this scope is referred to the designated responsible person.

Peer learning and practical guidance. Created short examples on surface design and colour research for colleagues. Separated personal preferences from agreed team procedures and recorded useful questions.

Review and handover discipline. Facilitated practical reviews of print production refinement, ensuring that unresolved issues retained a named owner rather than disappearing from final presentations.

Client images, skin information and private details are not included; no real brand collaboration or professional licence is verified.

SELECTED WORK / 02 AND 03

Print production refinement

P2 | Jan 2025 - Jun 2025 | Meridian Fashion and Beauty (fictional)

Problem. Digital concepts changed character in production.

Objective. Create a workable response to this issue through weave concepts, explicit review criteria and practical documentation. Agree the boundaries before execution and retain unresolved points for follow-up.

Ownership. Textile Designer; owned the stated workstream, not the full organisation or every collaborator contribution.

- Adjusted separations and documented material responses.
- Prepared the scope with the commissioning team, identified unresolved inputs and used print development to turn the brief into a sequenced work package.
- Applied colour research and repeat design while coordinating reviews with the designated owner. Kept decision notes so collaborators could separate facts, assumptions and changes.
- Assembled the handover material, explained open limitations and agreed which items needed further review rather than presenting them as completed.

Methods. weave concepts / print development / colour research / repeat design

Delivered. Print production refinement - scoped brief; Print production refinement - reviewed working package; Print production refinement - handover and learning summary

Illustrative outcome: the team adopted a repeatable approach for print production refinement, with clearer ownership and reviewable records. This is a fictional qualitative result; no real performance measurement or external acceptance evidence is supplied.

Suggested evidence (not supplied): collection or service brief; annotated trial and sample records; approved handover or presentation.

Textile sample library

P3 | Jan 2020 - Jun 2020 | Northline Fashion and Beauty (fictional)

Problem. Designers lacked traceable development references.

Objective. Create a workable response to this issue through print development, explicit review criteria and practical documentation. Agree the boundaries before execution and retain unresolved points for follow-up.

Ownership. Textile Designer; owned the stated workstream, not the full organisation or every collaborator contribution.

- Organised swatches and technical notes.
- Prepared the scope with the commissioning team, identified unresolved inputs and used repeat design to turn the brief into a sequenced work package.
- Applied materials and sampling while coordinating reviews with the designated owner. Kept decision notes so collaborators could separate facts, assumptions and changes.
- Assembled the handover material, explained open limitations and agreed which items needed further review rather than presenting them as completed.

Methods. print development / colour research / repeat design / materials

Delivered. Textile sample library - scoped brief; Textile sample library - reviewed working package; Textile sample library - handover and learning summary

Illustrative outcome: the team adopted a repeatable approach for textile sample library, with clearer ownership and reviewable records. This is a fictional qualitative result; no real performance measurement or external acceptance evidence is supplied.

Suggested evidence (not supplied): collection or service brief; annotated trial and sample records; approved handover or presentation.
